SCHOOOL'S IN: DRIVE CAREFULLY (BOTH ON AND OFF THE ROAD)

Welcoming the Season of Advent

On Sunday, November 29, 2026, we begin the season of Advent, a time when we are invited to prepare our hearts and minds for the coming of Jesus Christ. Advent is a time of hope, peace, joy, and love, a time to pause amid the busyness of our daily lives and reflect on the true meaning of Christmas.

As we light the Advent wreath each week, may its growing light remind us of Christ's presence in our lives and inspire us to bring His light to others through kindness, generosity, prayer, and acts of service.

We are especially grateful for our parish community and its continued prayers, generosity, and support of The De La Salle School. Your commitment to our mission is a beautiful expression of the Advent spirit, reminding us that we are called to share God's love and bring hope and opportunity to others. May this Advent season renew our faith, strengthen our hope, and prepare our hearts to welcome the newborn King. May we continue to grow together in faith and service as we share Christ's light with all those around us.
Please join us at our upcoming events:

- Silver Jubilee Christmas Luncheon– Wednesday, December 10, featuring guest speaker Archbishop Timothy Dolan
- 25th Silver Jubilee Gala –Thursday, May 6, 2027

If you are interested in attending our events, please contact our Development Director Joe Barry 516-379-0012.

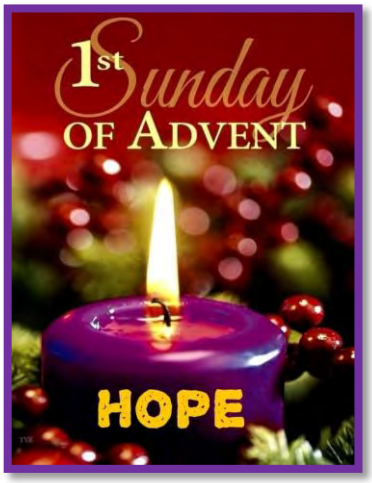
Deacon's Corner



On this First Sunday of Advent God speaks directly to all of us. As Jesus says in the Gospel, "What I say to you, I say to all: 'Watch!'" (See Saint Mark 13:33-37) In spite of the claims from some Christian sectors, the fact is that no one knows the time of the Lord's return. Yet the amazing thing is that He trusts us so much that He has left us in charge. Therefore, we need to watch, we need to be alert to our spiritual and physical needs, and we also need to be alert to both the physical and spiritual needs of all of our brothers and sisters. As we wait for the coming of Jesus, we are also waiting for his birth in the manger of our hearts. As St. Louis de Montfort taught, we look to the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Holy Mother of God, remembering that it was through Her that Jesus came into the world and it is also through Her that He must Reign in the world. Mary kept the things She heard from God in Her immaculate heart. Let us do likewise and as we light the first candle of Advent, the Candle of Hope, let us keep the things we hear from God in our hearts: "Watch!"

Deacon Cris

El Rincón del Diácono

En este primer domingo de Adviento, Dios nos habla directamente a todos. Como dice Jesús en el Evangelio: «Lo que les digo a ustedes, se lo digo a todos: ¡Estén atentos!» (cf. San Marcos 13, 33-37). A pesar de las afirmaciones de algunos sectores cristianos, lo cierto es que nadie conoce el momento del regreso del Señor. Sin embargo, lo asombroso es que Él confía tanto en nosotros que nos ha dejado a cargo. Por tanto, debemos estar atentos; hemos de permanecer alerta ante nuestras propias necesidades espirituales y materiales, así como ante las necesidades —tanto materiales como espirituales— de todos nuestros hermanos y hermanas. Mientras aguardamos la venida de Jesús, esperamos también su nacimiento en el pesebre de nuestros corazones. Como enseñaba san Luis de Montfort, volvemos la mirada hacia la Santísima Virgen María, Madre de Dios, recordando que fue a través de Ella como Jesús vino al mundo y que es también a través de Ella como Él debe reinar en el mundo. María guardaba en su corazón inmaculado todo lo que escuchaba de Dios. Hagamos nosotros lo mismo y, al encender la primera vela de Adviento —la vela de la Esperanza—, guardemos en nuestros corazones aquello que escuchamos de Dios: «¡Estén atentos!».

Pastor's Message

First Sunday of Advent (Year "B")

I.--ADVENT A TIME OF HOPE AND A TIME OF WAITING...(Pierre Teilhard de Chardin)

--All of history is surging forward into one community of life (Ephesians 1, 3-10) the Consummation of the Universe. --even if war or nuclear disaster set this process back many years… history will one day culminate in a kingdom of peace and love. WHY… because GOD PROMISED US THIS AND THE RESURRECTION HAS PROVED TO US HE HAS THE POWER TO BRING THIS ABOUT.

--This HOPE is NOT JUST wishful thinking: THIS HOPE IS BELIEVING IN THE PROMISE OF GOD.--THE PROMISE: that one day there will come a heaven, a paradise, a community of life around Christ and in God where there are no tears and death.--A community of life NOT focused on "food and drink" MATERIAL THINGS (this world will have passed away): but focused on the very breath of love, justice, peace, friendship, shared in the Holy Spirit.

--To HOPE is to NOT COUNT the losses, the hurts, play the victim, or wallow in bitterness… because all our wounds will be healed as part of the promise.

--Advent is the season for us to imitate Mary's hope by allowing FAITH TO GESTATE WITHIN US AND ALLOW GOD'S PROMISE TO BECOME A REALITY…

II.-- IN the First Reading today from Isaiah: the context is when the Israelites were returning from the Babylonian Exile…they were held captive for 60 years and now could return.

--they were returning to a desolate land and a destroyed temple and city.

Example: Family returning to a burned out house or flood damaged home… OR ALL THE FAMILIES IN PUERTO RICO RETURNING TO A DEVASTATED HOUSE.

--the reading contains a mixture of feelings: , outrage at God, praise for God, humility, hope, and anguish.

--Isaiah expresses Israels hope for a POWERFUL MANIFESTATION of God's presence in their midst. "Oh, that you would rend the heavens and come down, with the mountains quaking before you."

--Isaiah was recalling the Good Old Days when Yahweh yielded his glorious arm of power during the Exodus… but Isaiah could only question: "where is your zeal and might and power?"

--Isaiah is begging God to PROVE himself through some great act of Power.

III.--In the Gospel today… Jesus predicts his SECOND COMING (PAROUSIA)—Be on the Watch, Stay Awake, You don't know the appointed time.

STAY AWAKE: People go through their daily lives not only with a lack of reflectiveness and lack of gratitude and sometimes asleep to the real richness of their lives. --The distractions and worries of daily life tend to consume them, so they take for granted what is most precious: health, family, love, friendship and life itself.-- Jesus is always telling us to wake up, to stay awake, to be vigilant, to be more alert. --How are we asleep? How do we wake up? --We need to live in the Present Moment; as if every day was our last…This is true that awareness of our mortality does wake us up (as does a stroke, heart attack, cancer) But such a heightened-awareness is difficult to live for a long time… WE CAN'T SUSTAIN THAT KIND OF AWARENESS ALL THE TIME. (to live 70/80 years as if it was the last day)

--We need to begin each day with prayer (and prayer before meals)… Prayer and Eucharist can call us out of a certain sleep to an awareness and gratitude to the richness of our lives. Prayer centers us on God… calls us out of ourselves… (Def. = prayer is raising our hearts and minds to God…) Prayer causes us to focus on the other.--Prayer serves as out Spiritual Alarm Clock that jolts us back awake (so it doesn't take a heart attack, stroke, cancer, or death.) to wake us up.

CONTEXT OF GOSPEL: in our Lord's time there were many absentee land-owners who lived elsewhere leaving servants in charge of caring for and carrying on business in the owner's absence.

--they had no idea when the owner would return

--Jesus is illustrating the need for alertness and readiness and need to be prepared for his second coming.

--If we are ready then then there is no reason to be FEARFUL ABOUT CHRISTS RETURN.

A.--This is NOT IDLE WAITING-- Like parents who give chores to their children while they away or like the Teacher who leaves the classroom giving her students plenty of work to do… Jesus trusts us to carry out his work until he returns:

--witnessing to Jesus in our daily lives
--work to be done in our families, schools, community
--work caring for those who are hurting and have needs.

ARE YOU FAITHFUL IN SMALL MATTERS?

"Jesus said to his disciples: 'Be watchful! Be alert! You do not know when the time will come. It is like a man traveling abroad. He leaves home and places his servants in charge, each with his own work, and orders the gatekeeper to be on the watch. Watch, therefore, you do not know when the lord of the house is coming. Whether in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or in the morning. May he not come suddenly and find you sleeping. What I say to you, I say to all: 'Watch!'"

Saint Mark XIII: 33-37

¡Urgente Llamado a los Monaguillos!

¿Te gustaría ayudar a servir en el altar? ¿Por qué no unirte al creciente grupo de jóvenes que ayudan al Sacerdote en nuestro Altar? Si estás interesado, y tus padres están de acuerdo, llama al Padre Rubén al 516-378-0665. Si él no está disponible, déjale un recado con tu nombre y teléfono y él o un delegado te llamará. El primer paso es recibir instrucción para que sepas lo que tienes que hacer y las primeras veces que sirves te acompañará otro servidor con experiencia que te ayudará a hacer lo que debes hacer. De modo, que ¡manos a la obra!

BABY'S LIFE BEFORE BIRTH
- My heart is beating at 18 to 25 days.
- The foundation for my nervous system is in place at 20 days.
- My skeleton is complete at 42 days and I have reflexes.
- My brain waves can be detected as early as 43 days.
- At 8 weeks my brain and all body systems are present and I look like a miniature doll.
- During weeks 9 and 10 I squint, swallow and can make a fist.
- By the 11th and 12th weeks I am moving my arms and legs, sucking my thumb and breathing amniotic fluid. All my systems are working.
- My movements by 16 weeks are quite active and I can be seen performing somersaults on ultrasound but am not yet felt by my mother.
- From the 3rd month on nothing new develops. I continue to grow in size and by 20 weeks I have hair on my head, weigh 1 pound and am 12 inches tall.
