SCHOOL'S IN: DRIVE CAREFULLY (both on and off the road)

NEWS FROM THE DE LA SALLE SCHOOL (516) 379-8660

The De La Salle School—Catholic Lasallian School for young men Grades 5-8

I would to share a popular saying with you, "In like a lion, out like a lamb". This is a saying which many teachers use during the month of March.

Teachers use this saying to explain to their students that when the month of March begins, it starts off with harsh weather conditions, hence, it is compared to the roaring of a lion. Then by the end of the month spring has begun, and the month ends with mild weather conditions, and so it is compared to a gentle lamb.

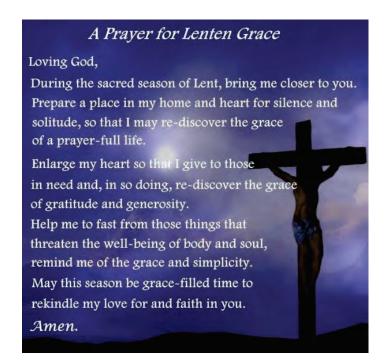

As we begin the month of March, we ask God to help us live out this saying. That we may begin this month with the strength of a lion as we turn towards God with fervor, and that we may end the month with God's gentle peace in our hearts as we prepare for his resurrection.

The De La Salle School prays that God's love will give the Our Holy Redeemer parish strength and peace during the Lenten season.

DEACON'S CORNER

"The zeal for your house will consume me." (See Saint John 2:13-25) In today's Gospel we see Jesus in action. He cleanses the House of His Father from those who made the Temple a marketplace. We need to understand what was happening in order to understand this dynamic. The sellers of oxen, sheep and doves were making an exorbitant profit from the pilgrims that would come to Jerusalem to make a sacrifice at the temple. In addition to that, the moneychangers were using unfair rates to change money to temple coins. The people were being hurt by all of this. Jesus' zeal for the house of his father does not allow Him to remain passive. He acts and he cleanses the temple. How about us today? Do we feel like Jesus when it comes to help and protect the people of God? This defiant act of Jesus no doubt contributed to the animosity the ruling class felt against him and eventually to His death. But let us not forget the ultimate outcome: Resurrection! We too may be hurt in the process of helping and or standing up for God's people. We may raise animosity against ourselves but let us not lose from mind the ultimate outcome – Resurrection!

Deacon Cris

EL RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

"El celo de tu casa me devora." (Vea San Juan 2:13-25) En el Evangelio de hoy vemos a Jesús en acción. El limpia la casa de Su padre de los que estaban convirtiendo el templo en un mercado. Necesitamos entender lo que estaba sucediendo para comprender el dinamismo. Los vendedores de bueyes, ovejas y palomas y los cambistas de dinero estaban haciendo una ganancia exorbitante a costa de los peregrinos que viajaban a Jerusalén para llevar un sacrificio al templo. El pueblo estaba sufriendo debido a esto. El celo de Jesús por la casa de su padre no le permite permanecer pasivo. Entra en acción y limpia el templo. ¿Qué hay de nosotros hoy? ¿Nos sentimos como Jesús en lo que toca a proteger el pueblo de Dios? El acto desafiante de Jesús sin duda contribuyó a la animosidad que la clase gobernante sentía contra él y eventualmente a su muerte. Pero no debemos olvidar el resultado final: ¡Resurrección! Quizás nosotros también seamos perjudicados en el proceso de ayudar al pueblo de Dios. Quizás nos ganemos la animosidad de otros. Pero no perdamos de vista el resultado final--¡Resurrección!

Pastor's Message

From Father Cedrick Pisegna Examination of Conscience

A person's conscience is our most secret core and our sanctuary. There we are alone with God whose voice echoes in our depths. (Catechism #1776)

The Spiritual and moral life is about going forward, moving and growing. As you examine your heart, your conscience, are there any areas where you feel stuck or are even going backwards? You must confront and confess these issues in order to move. In addition, you must be honest enough to try to get to the roots. As you surrender your issues and sins to the Lord, you can trust God for mercy, gentleness and healing.

Some issues to think about:

- 1) Anger: Are you angry with others, circumstances, self or God? Is there bitterness, resentment and non-forgiveness in your heart? Do you manage your anger by "exploding" or "imploding"? Possible roots of anger are: Perfectionism, grasping for control, unrealistic expectations, family of origin.
- 2) Relationships: Is there someone you need to forgive? Can you ask for the courage to pray for them now? Is there someone you need to confront about their behavior? Ask for the courage to do so and to do it in a non-threatening way. Are you striving to love the irritating and "unlovely" people in your life? Or do you just avoid them?
- 3) Codependency: Do you allow the behaviors and emotions of others to control and manipulate you? Are you a people pleaser and live in fear of what others think all the time? Do you stand up for yourself? Are you true to yourself? Roots: insecurity, fear of rejection.
- 4) Idols: What "catches" your eye in life? Is it out of balance shopping, T.V., excessive Internet, gambling, food, drinking, sex, travel, sports, or work? Are you impulsive, compulsive, obsessive and out of control in any of these areas? What would being in balance mean in these areas? Roots: Low self-image/body image, boredom, lack of control, frustration with life, loneliness, self-sabotage. The need to escape from external and/or internal pain.
- 5) Gossip: Do you build relationships with others based on ungodly talk and slander? Control? Manipulation? Possible roots are the need for acceptance and approval from others. Belittling others to make yourself feel more important. Insecurity.
- 6) Lust: Do you watch programs on T.V., explore the Internet or read books that are inappropriate? Does this lead to unwanted behaviors? Possible roots: Longing for God shifted to lust. Lack of contentment stemming from the need for excitement. Lack of self-control and immaturity. Simple rebelliousness and flippant disregard.
- 7) Laziness: Are you lazy in areas of personal health, relationships, work, and seeking God? Roots: Lack of self-control and discipline, immaturity, low self-esteem, selfishness, lack of integrity.
- 8) Pride: Exaggerated self-importance. Are you stubborn, controlling, insensitive, cynical, contentious, opinionated and slow to say you were wrong? Do you judge others harshly simply by appearance? Pride denies and hides issues. It has a need to always be right. Humility admits, confronts and confesses. Roots: "I" Selfishness, negative self-image, fear and insecurity.
- 9) Anything else? Is there any other area that you need to confront and look at in order to experience healing, forgiveness and go forward? Look at your relationship with God, others and self. Try to think not just about your issues, but possible roots. God Bless you as you confront, face your pain, confess and move forward!!

WE ARE LOOKING FOR PEOPLE WHO WILL DEDICATE THEMSELVES TO ASSISTING THOSE WHO GRIEVE

"Comfort, give comfort to my people, says our God." Isaiah 40:1

To offer consolation is one of the most important ways to care. Life is so full of pain, sadness and loneliness that we often wonder what we can do to alleviate the immense suffering we see. We can and must offer consolation. To console does not mean to take away the pain, but rather to be there and say, "You are not alone, I am with you." We all need to give consolation as well as to receive it.

- Henri Nouwen

Be a blessing to someone grieving the loss of a loved one. The blessings you receive are beyond your imagination.

Our Holy Redeemer offers comfort to those who mourn through our Ministry of Consolation. Members who serve as companions help guide recently bereaved families through the planning and celebration of the funeral Mass for their loved one. They sometimes serve as greeters at the Mass. Volunteers in the Ministry of Consolation are known for their compassion and we are grateful for their service to our faith community.

If you feel called to this ministry, we will provide training. For more information, please contact Deacon Bruce Burnham at (516) 943-8306 or email deacon119@aol.com

This study was specifically designed for this Year of Parish Revival, and we will be joining many other parishes throughout the United States in participating in this small group study as we journey together through this three-year National Eucharistic Revival.

Each session is full of rich theological content, powerful testimonies, and unique and timely messages from individual bishops across the country. This is a great opportunity to dive more deeply into the richness of our Eucharistic faith.

This study will be a special time to grow in community within our parish as we walk this sacred year together, and we really desire you to join us.

Please join us on Mondays, 25 March; 15 April; 29 April; 20 May; 3 June; 17 June; & 24 June 2024, at 7:30 P.M. in the lower church at Our Holy Redeemer R. C. NOT A MARKETPLACE

Since the Passover of the Jews was near, Jesus went up to Jerusalem. He found in the temple area those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, as well as the money changers seated there. He made a whip out of cords and drove them all out of the temple area, with the sheep and oxen, and spilled the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables, and to those who sold doves He said. "Take these out of here, and stop making My Father's house a marketplace." ... At this the Jews answered and said to Him, "What sign can You show us for doing this?" Jesus answered and said to them, "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up." The Jews said, "This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and You will raise it up in three days?" But He was speaking about the temple of His body.

Dear Parishioners of OUR HOLY REDEEMER:

Fr Frank Addey, the Hospital Chaplin who is in residence with us here at OHR and very much involved with the faith life and liturgical life of our parish, would like to make an appeal. We have great needs here, yet Ghana is such a poor country. If you would like to make a donation, please bring it to the Parish Office marked: Diocese of Koforidua.

Thank You, Fr Chris Nowak

This is St Stephen Catholic Church, Nkurakan, in the Eastern Region of Ghana in the diocese of Koforidua, Ghana. Due to an increase in membership, the parish decided to embark on the expansion of the church by extending the wings and reworking the sanctuary. They were on course to realize this dream when COVID-19 hit and got stalled and not able to mobilize the necessary resources to complete the project. The parish needs financial resources to finish the fixing of the windows, the pews, the ceiling, electrical installations, and interior decoration to befit a sacred place of worship. It is in this light that I appeal for financial assistance to help complete this project. This is my home church, where I received my infant baptism, and first Holy Communion, and celebrated my First Thanksgiving Mass as a priest of the Holy Roman Catholic church on August 28, 2010.

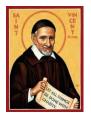

Thanks. Fr Frank Addey
