NEWS FROM THE DE LA SALLE SCHOOL (516) 379-8660

The De La Salle School—Catholic Lasallian School for young men Grades 5-8

On April 7, Lasallians all over the world celebrate the Feast of Saint John Baptist de La Salle, our founder. More than three centuries ago, Saint John Baptist de La Salle was called on by God to care for the poor children of Rouen, France. During this time, poverty was widespread in France, and few families could afford to educate their children. John Baptist de La Salle felt the best way to approach this problem would be to establish a community devoted to the education of children, regardless of their ability to pay.

We celebrate Saint John Baptist de La Salle's obedience to God in answering the call to educate the poor. Just as Saint John Baptist de La Salle answered God's call to care for his people, so have you answered the call. Thank you to Saint John Baptist de La Salle and thank you too for saying YES MY LORD I will answer your call.

*St. John Baptist De La Salle, pray for us.
Live Jesus in our hearts, forever!*

“I will continue O’ my God to do all my actions for the love of you.”

DEACON'S CORNER

In today's Gospel, Jesus greets his disciples with the gift of peace. Jesus then commissions his disciples to continue the work that he has begun. As Jesus was sent by God, so Jesus sends his disciples. He gives his disciples the gift of the Holy Spirit so that they will be able to accomplish this task. Jesus' words to his disciples also highlight the integral connection between the forgiveness of sins and the gift of the Holy Spirit. With the grace of the Holy Spirit, we can share forgiveness and reconciliation with others.

Thomas, the doubting disciple in today's reading, represents the reality of the Church that comes after this first community of witnesses to Jesus. All but the first disciples of Jesus must believe without seeing. Like Thomas, we may doubt the news that Jesus, who was crucified and buried, appeared to his disciples. Our human nature seeks hard evidence that the Jesus who appeared to his disciples after his death is indeed the same Jesus who was crucified. Thomas is given the opportunity to be our representative in obtaining this evidence. He gives witness to us that the Jesus who was raised is the same Jesus who died. Through the gift of the Holy Spirit, we are among those who are blessed, for we have not seen and yet believe.

EL RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

En el evangelio de hoy, Jesús saluda a sus discípulos con el don de la paz. Luego, Jesús encarga a sus discípulos que continúen el trabajo que él ha comenzado. Así como Jesús fue enviado por Dios, así Jesús envía a sus discípulos. Él da a sus discípulos el don del Espíritu Santo para que puedan realizar esta tarea. Las palabras de Jesús a sus discípulos también resaltan la conexión integral entre el perdón de los pecados y el don del Espíritu Santo. Con la gracia del Espíritu Santo, podemos compartir el perdón y la reconciliación con los demás.

Tomás, el discípulo que duda en la lectura de hoy, representa la realidad de la Iglesia que viene después de esta primera comunidad de testigos de Jesús. Todos, excepto los primeros discípulos de Jesús deben creer sin ver. Como Tomás, podemos dudar de la noticia de que Jesús, que fue crucificado y sepultado, se apareció a sus discípulos. Nuestra naturaleza humana busca pruebas contundentes de que el Jesús que se apareció a sus discípulos después de su muerte es en realidad el mismo Jesús que fue crucificado. Thomas tiene la oportunidad de ser nuestro representante en la obtención de esta evidencia. Nos da testimonio de que el Jesús que resucitó es el mismo Jesús que murió. Por el don del Espíritu Santo, estamos entre los bienaventurados, porque no hemos visto y creemos.

Pastor's Message

Homily: II Sunday of Easter 2024: Divine Mercy Sunday

I.- Back in 1984, Time Magazine had on its cover the picture of a prison cell with two empty chairs facing each other. It was the prison cell where Pope John Paul II would sit down with Ali Agca his would be assassin. John Paul II gave the world a wonderful example as he showed mercy and forgiveness to his would-be assassin.

We are reminded of our Lord's greatest act: he forgave his persecutors from the cross. He wants us to try to show the same mercy and forgiveness to another.

In the year 2000 John Paul II declared the Second Sunday of Easter: Divine Mercy Sunday as he beatified the Apostle of Mercy: Sister Faustina. This Feast focuses on God's mercy as an event—a continuing action of mercy throughout all of salvation history. This feast is a summary of Holy Week and the Triduum of how his mercy is active in our lives now. It is because of his mercy that we have forgiveness of sin and new life as children of God. This needs to be celebrated.

Let's define our terms: mercy is withholding a penalty on someone who may deserve it and you have the right to inflict upon that individual. Forgiveness involves overcoming anger and resentment towards someone who may have offended/hurt you or a situation. We forgive not to let someone off the hook. We forgive to bring about healing in our heart. If there is a crime, there has to be justice. But we have to forgive to bring healing to our heart. Thus, forgiveness is more about us than it is about the other person. Mercy is kind of like showing leniency. Forgiveness is letting go of hurt. Jesus Christ showed mercy and forgiveness from the cross and He wants to do the same to one another.

A.--The readings this weekend deal with the themes of mercy and recognition. Recognition in that just about all the resurrection appearances the disciples don't initially recognize Jesus right away. There are several reasons for this.

First, they are caught up in their own sadness and loss. They were hoping Jesus was the Messiah. They followed him for over a year (depending on the Gospel) They had a big investment of their time in him. In the end we can even say that as disciples they grew to love our Lord and believed in Him. Thus, when they see him die on the cross, they are devastated. We can identify with this as we have all lost a loved one. Sometimes the sadness and sense of loss is so profound and there are so many tears you can't see that well. Have you ever cried so much that the Ph balance in your tears is such that it hurts to cry?

Secondly, they are preoccupied by the news of the empty tomb. They are upset that the body is missing. Who would have taken it? Can you imagine going to a loved one's grave and the body being dug up and gone? You would be beside yourself.

Thirdly, and the main reason they don't recognize the risen Christ is because he is new creation; he has been transformed. Our Lord in his risen form was different, he was no longer flesh and bones, but he wasn't just pure spirit either. Example : Mary Magdalene thinks it's the gardener. Another EXAMPLE: we will hear next week is that beautiful reading from Luke of the Two Apostles on the road to Emmaus—their hearts were burning with zeal. It's only when they extended hospitality to this stranger they recognized that it was our Lord. They recognized him in the Breaking of the Bread. We know He ate a piece of baked fish.

This theme of recognition applies to us as well: Do we recognize the Risen Christ in our Lives; are we any different having celebrated Easter? Do we see the signs of new life around us. Do we live in Easter Hope—that all things are possible with Christ. Remember faith is synonymous with hope—as people of faith we need to be about seeing the goodness of the Lord everywhere.

II. In today's Gospel, Thomas was not present when our Lord made his first appearance to his followers—Thomas represents all of us. Thomas wants physical proof—he doesn't want to hear the testimony of the other disciples (or of a woman) that the Lord has risen—he wants to see for himself... then he will believe. Thomas is an EMPIRICIST—an empiricist only believes something exists if it registers on the five senses, if you can't touch it, see it, hear it, smell it, measure it---THEN IT DOESN'T EXIST.

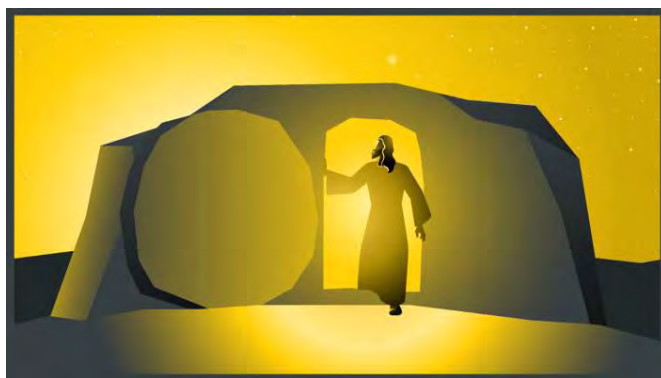

We are no different—for how many of you: Easter was just another day, no different from all the rest. Did the resurrection take place just because it's written in the Bible? The empty Tomb is only partial proof of the resurrection. The Proof of the resurrection is how it transformed this small group of timid, afraid group of followers of Jesus into this bold courageous group of Evangelizers who proclaimed: Jesus Christ is Risen. The real proof of the resurrection is how the Apostles experienced the Risen Christ and it transformed them.

Also, In today's Gospel Jesus says to his disciples twice: Peace be with you. We often say this to each other, what does it mean when we say: "Peace be with you" "The Peace of Christ be with you." The peace of Christ is a peace that wipes away all fears; it is the peace that is derived from the word SHALOM (Leviticus 25)—where all live in freedom, harmony, and fullness—living in a world of: mercy, justice, and righteousness.

Jesus understood his ministry as the fulfillment of this vision of peace, "I have come that they might have life and have it abundantly (John 10:10)—the kingdom that Jesus preached: there will be no: physical illness, emotional difficulty, interpersonal conflict, hatreds, and separation from God—all will enjoy abundant life. So, this is what it means when Jesus said to his apostles, and we say to one another: "Peace be with you"

This Peace of Christ is reflected in the Reading from Acts of the Apostles (the first reading). : The community of believers was of one heart and mind, and no one claimed that any of his possessions was his own, but they had everything in common. With great power the apostles bore witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great favor had accorded them all. There was no needy person among them. This is the community that forms when the Peace of Christ reigns in our hearts.

CONCLUSION: with peace and mercy in our hearts we need to be about seeing the signs of new life, signs of the resurrection all around us.

Dear Parishioners of OUR HOLY REDEEMER:

Fr Frank Addey, the Hospital Chaplin who is in residence with us here at OHR and very much involved with the faith life and liturgical life of our parish, would like to make an appeal. We have great needs here, yet Ghana is such a poor country. If you would like to make a donation, please bring it to the Parish Office marked: Diocese of Koforidua.
Thank You, Fr Chris Nowak

This is St Stephen Catholic Church, Nkurakan, in the Eastern Region of Ghana in the diocese of Koforidua, Ghana. Due to an increase in membership, the parish decided to embark on the expansion of the church by extending the wings and reworking the sanctuary. They were on course to realize this dream when COVID-19 hit and got stalled and not able to mobilize the necessary resources to complete the project. The parish needs financial resources to finish the fixing of the windows, the pews, the ceiling, electrical installations, and interior decoration to befit a sacred place of worship. It is in this light that I appeal for financial assistance to help complete this project. This is my home church, where I received my infant baptism, and first Holy Communion, and celebrated my First Thanksgiving Mass as a priest of the Holy Roman Catholic church on August 28, 2010.
Thanks. Fr Frank Addey

DO YOU BELIEVE?

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were ... Jesus came and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you."

When He said this, He showed them His hands and His side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. ... Thomas, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said "Unless I see the mark of the nails in His hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into His side, I will not believe." Now a week later His disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." He said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see My hands, and bring your hand and put it into My side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." Thomas answered and said to Him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said, "Have you come to believe because you have seen Me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."

Saint John XX: 19-20, 24-29

- ♥ My heart is beating at 18 to 25 days.
- ♥ The foundation for my nervous system is in place at 20 days.
- ♥ My skeleton is complete at 42 days and I have reflexes.
- ♥ My brain waves can be detected as early as 43 days.
- ♥ At 8 weeks my brain and all body systems are present and I look like a miniature doll.
- ♥ During weeks 9 and 10 I squint, swallow and can make a fist.
- ♥ By the 11th and 12th weeks I am moving my arms and legs, sucking my thumb and breathing amniotic fluid. All my systems are working.
- ♥ My movements by 16 weeks are quite active and I can be seen performing somersaults on ultrasound but am not yet felt by my mother.
- ♥ From the 3rd month on nothing new develops. I continue to grow in size and by 20 weeks I have hair on my head, weigh 1 pound and am 12 inches tall.
