DEACON'S CORNER

“In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.” (See Saint Matthew 28:16-20) This declaration from Matthew’s Gospel lists the three persons of the Most Holy Trinity, the Holy Feast we celebrate today. Why is it important for us to believe in the Trinity? Think about this: If Jesus were not God, could His sacrifice on the cross cover the sins of all mankind? Could we be so sure and certain of the love of God if God had sent a servant, someone he had created to die for us? Instead, the Second Person of the Most Holy Trinity, God the Son, came to die for us. Believing in the Trinity is not just a matter of believing in a doctrine. It is far more than that. It means that we know how God is because we know how He acted when He took flesh and blood in the womb of the Blessed Virgin Mary. It means that we can believe the love of God is true and real, because instead of sending a servant to die for us, He himself came to die for us. As a result, we can love, as He loved us!

Deacon Cris

EL RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

“En el nombre del Padre y del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo.” (Vea San Mateo 28:16-20) Esta declaración del Evangelio de Mateo nombra las tres personas de la Santísima Trinidad, cuya Sagrada Fiesta celebramos hoy. ¿Por qué es importante que creamos en la Trinidad? Piense en ello. Si Jesús no era Dios, ¿hubiera su sacrificio en la cruz podido cubrir los pecados de toda la humanidad? ¿Podríamos estar tan seguros del amor de Dios, si Dios hubiera enviado a un siervo, a alguien que Él hubiese creado a morir por nosotros? en vez de eso, la Segunda Persona de la Santísima Trinidad, Dios el Hijo, vino a morir por nosotros. El creer en la Trinidad no es solo cuestión de creer en una doctrina. Es mucho más que eso. Significa que sabemos cómo Dios es por sabemos cómo Él obró cuando se convirtió en carne y sangre en el vientre de la Santísima Virgen María. Significa que podemos creer que el amor de Dios es cierto y verdadero, porque en vez de enviar a un siervo a morir por nosotros, Él mismo vino a morir por nosotros. ¡Como resultado, podemos amar como Dios nos ha amado!

Diácono Cris

Pastor's Message

We are created in the image and likeness of God. This is biblical.

Therefore the more we know and understand God; the more we know and understand humanity / ourselves.

--This is very timely today with all the racial and civil unrest that has resulted. People need to see the likeness of God in people that are different from them. Humanity has a long way to go.

God can only be God in a Trinitarian Relationship--Therefore we can only be full human by being a member of a family and community.— We need the community to challenge our selfishness, our ego, self-centeredness, to challenge prejudice, but also to affirm the goodness in us.

This is why we all miss the Eucharist / Certainly The Body of Christ on the altar the Eucharist and The Body of Christ, the community that forms around our Lord's altar.

John Cardinal Newman once noted that the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity was unlike any of the other major feasts that we celebrate during the Church year. Today we celebrate NOT A MOMENT IN OUR SALVATION HISTORY—Today we celebrate THE VERY NATURE OF GOD

We are MONOTHEISTIC: ONE GOD—HOWEVER, WE BELIEVE THAT GOD IS A TRINITY / COMMUNITY OF PERSONS.—Two is company and three is COMMUNITY."

Our faith life is very individualistic has also flowed over into our Catholic faith belief system: For Example: Its MY salvation is between me and God—I am responsible for myself and no one else. So, you may wonder why we as a Church—when we gather at Mass, we pay so much attention to our human experience of community. Why we place so much emphasis on our: Communal prayers at Mass, the Sign of Peace, the communion Rite of processing together to receive Holy Communion, communal Penance Services. We live in a tension between I---We.

I.- IN OUR BELIEF SYSTEM---We made the TURN TO THE SUBJECT "I" the INDIVIDUAL BUT IN OUR WORSHIP OUR COMMUNAL PRAYER WE EMPHASIZE THE COMMUNIAL—WHY IS THIS? The answer has a great deal to do with the VERY NATURE OF GOD.

II.- One of the most profound teachings of Jesus is that God is in Himself a community, that we are made in God's image and likeness, and that in Christ we are to become like God. God is Three Persons, a community of persons that exists in love. That is the inner nature of God, that is the life of heaven, and that is what we are called to live here on earth.

In the Book of Genesis God says. "Let us make man in OUR image..." We are called into existence, to be in and to live in a relational existence. (NOT MY IMAGE).

---We discover who we are and find meaning in life ONLY IN THE CONTEXT OF FAMILY and COMMUNITY.

---It is only when we experience the JOY and PEACE in this context is when we being TO TASTE HEAVEN AND EXPERIENCE THE ULTIMATE COMMUNITY OF GOD—the communion of THREE in ONE.

When you live in communion with others you become more than just yourself.

By being a member of a community, we are expanded, broadened, and deepened.

----The belief in the Holy Trinity is based upon Christ's life and is found in his constant references to His Father in Heaven and to the Holy Spirit.

III.-- What does the Dogma of the Holy Trinity mean for you and me in our everyday living? Well, it means that our lives are geared to be relational, to live in Community.

We grow and discover who we are by being an active member of a worshipping community. When we become more like God in the way we live with others, then God's presence, power, and love are made all that much more real for those who live around us.

--The more we care and are concerned with those around us the more we become filled with God's holiness, not only for our own sake but for the sake of others who know us and love us.---Loving others as Christ loves them is essential; it is of the essence of being one with Christ.

It is the only way we can understand what St. John is talking about when he says that God is love and he who loves has found God, and God lives in him.

--The doctrine of the Trinity rests upon the great Commandment: Love one another as I have loved you. That we have AGAPE love towards all of humanity. Agape love (not filial love or eros love) is a glimpse of divine love (as I have loved you).

--Jesus told us that heaven begins here on earth. The kingdom of heaven is here, among you, He told us. We are not far from it. The life of God begins to be experienced here. Heaven is not a prize dangled in front of us. Heaven isn't the reward at the end of a road of pain, trial, and suffering. Heaven and our Salvation begin in this life, when we begin to live a Trinitarian/Communal life with others, building the Kingdom of God. Living and putting into practice all that our Lord taught, stood for and died for.

The Importance of the Doctrine of the Holy Trinity lies in this: we are made in God's image---therefore, the more we understand about God, the more we understand about ourselves. Scholars say that people tend to take on the qualities or become more like the god they worship (eg. War mongering, wrath, loving). What does the doctrine of the Blessed Trinity tell us about the kind of God we worship and the kind of people we want to be?

We are made in God's image and Likeness—God can only be God in a Trinitarian relationship—so we can only be fully human by being a member of a community. The Doctrine of the Trinity challenges us to live in a: I - God - Neighbor principle. I am a Catholic in that I live in relationship with God and others. This challenges our self-centeredness and our prejudices.

CONCLUSION: We believe in a Triune God of whom we are created in his likeness. All human beings are created in his likeness. We have to look for that likeness in others. Until we find it there will always be racial hatred. The more we understand about God, the more we understand about ourselves.

FATHER, SON, AND HOLY SPIRIT

The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had ordered them. When they all saw Him, they worshiped, but they doubted. Then Jesus approached and said to them, "All power in Heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age."

Saint Matthew XXVIII: 16-20
