DEACON'S CORNER

Do we really believe what Jesus said: "Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life."? (See Saint John 6:51-58) We Catholics do not believe as many of our Protestant brothers do that the consecrated host is only a symbol of the body of Christ. NO! That is not what we believe. Why? Because Christ said, "unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you." We believe that Jesus is the Truth, and that He spoke the truth. He knew what He wanted to say, and He said exactly what He meant. What happens on the altar when the priest asks God the Holy Spirit to transform the bread and wine in the body and blood of Christ is a miracle. This is what we believe. That is why when we receive the host or the cup during Holy Communion and the minister says, "the body of Christ" or "the blood of Christ" we respond with a resounding "Amen", that is, I BELIEVE!

Deacon Cris

EL RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

¿Realmente creemos lo que Jesús dijo: "El que come mi carne y bebe mi sangre, tiene vida eterna"? (Vea San Juan 6:51-58) Nosotros los Católicos no creemos como nuestros hermanos protestantes que la hostia consagrada es solo un símbolo del cuerpo de Cristo. ¡NO! Eso no es lo que creemos. ¿Por qué? Porque Cristo dijo: "Si no comen la carne del Hijo del hombre y no beben su sangre, no podrán tener vida en ustedes." Por eso, nosotros creemos en la presencia real de Cristo en la Eucaristía. Creemos que Jesús es la verdad, y que Él habló la verdad. Él sabía lo que quería decir y dijo exactamente lo que quería decir. Lo que sucede en el altar cuando el sacerdote le ruega al Espíritu Santo que transforme el pan y el vino en el cuerpo y la sangre de Cristo es un milagro. Eso es lo que nosotros creemos. ¡Por eso, cuando recibimos la hostia y el cáliz durante la Santa Comunión y el ministro nos dice "el cuerpo de Cristo," o "la sangre de Cristo," respondemos con un resonante Amén—es decir, ¡YO CREO!

SCHOOL'S IN: DRIVE CAREFULLY (both on and off the road)

NEWS FROM THE DE LA SALLE SCHOOL (516) 379-8660

The De La Salle School—Catholic Lasallian School for young men Grades 5-8

A Catholic education is unlike any other learning experience, and The De La Salle School is a gem among Catholic schools. We educate to develop the whole child, and to cultivate the entire person by engaging the human need for physical, mental, social, and spiritual nourishment. At The De La Salle School, we strive to meet these needs while considering the underserved communities of our beautiful Long Island. We provide opportunities to families that could not afford traditional Catholic schools.

“Let it be known to all who enter The De La Salle School that Jesus Christ is the reason for our school, the unseen but ever-present teacher in all its classes, the model of its faculty, and the inspiration for its students.”

Please remember that we are in the recruitment season. If you know of any young men who would benefit from attending our program, please reach out to the school for a visit and tour 516-379-8660.

What does it mean to be a catechist?

The root word, "catechesis," is from a Greek word meaning "to echo, or resound."

Catechesis is the act of resounding or bringing the Church's teachings to the world.

A catechist is one who teaches in the name of the Church.

Pastor's Message

AUGUST 18, 2024

JOKE: This 85-year-old couple, having been married almost 60 years, had died in a car crash. They had been in good health for the last ten years, mainly due to their interest in healthful food and exercise. When they reached the Pearly Gates, St. Peter took them to their mansion, which was decked out with a beautiful kitchen, a master bath suite and a Jacuzzi. As they "ooohed and aaahed," the old man asked Peter how much all this was going to cost.

"It's free," Peter replied, "this is Heaven."

Next, they went to see the championship golf course that their heavenly home backed up to. St. Peter told them they would have golfing privileges every day. The old man asked, "What are the greens fees?" Peter's reply, "This is heaven; you play for free."

Next, they went to the clubhouse and saw a lavish buffet laid out for them. "How much does it cost to eat?" asked the old man. "Don't you understand yet? This is heaven! It's free!" Peter replied. "Well, where are the low fat and low cholesterol foods?" the old man asked sadly. Peter smiled and said, "That's the best part...you can eat as much as you like of whatever you like, and you never get fat and you never get sick. This is Heaven."

The old man looked angrily at his wife and said, "You and your bran muffins! We could have been here ten years ago!"

Introduction: Today's readings stress the fact that the Holy Eucharist, the perfect fulfillment of the symbol of the manna of the Old Testament, is the Food that gives us life forever.

--In last Sunday's Gospel, Jesus declared that the Bread he gives is his Flesh. This Sunday, Jesus asserts that to eat this Bread is to have eternal life.

--First reading, taken from the Book of Proverbs, Lady Wisdom, representing God, offers wisdom and understanding in the form of a rich banquet to all those who are willing to heed her invitation.

--The early Christians often identified Jesus as the Wisdom of God. They regarded the Eucharist as Wisdom's banquet, where they shared in the Divine Wisdom now Incarnate in Jesus.

The Responsorial Psalm (Ps 34), God invites all to "taste and see the goodness of the Lord."

--Second reading, Paul advises the Gentile Christians to show their gratitude to God for calling them, along with the Jews, to Christianity, and for giving them a share in Christ's life.

--They will be able to receive this life by avoiding their former foolish ways, like getting drunk on wine.

--Instead, they are to be Spirit-filled with their talk edifying, always trying to discern and do the will of God.

--Gospel passage, Jesus asserts that eating the Living Bread, himself, allows us to participate in his life and to grow here and now in our eternal life with God.

--Jesus emphasizes the eternal-life dimensions of eating his Body and drinking his Blood - that those who have faith in Jesus and do so have already stepped into Heaven in this life, sharing in God's own life and therefore in eternal life.

--Our participation in the Eucharist also concretizes and energizes our relationship with Christ and with one another.

--When we share in the Body and Blood of Christ in the Holy Eucharist, Jesus himself comes to dwell within us. -This communion with the Lord makes us one Body, brings us eternal life, and sends us forth to be Christ's Body for the life of the world.

TAKEAWAY # 1: We need to allow our body to be broken and our blood to be shed for others as Jesus did. That is why, at the end of the Mass, we are sent out to announce the Gospel of the Lord by our humble service, radiating Jesus' love, mercy, forgiveness and spirit of service all around us.

#2: We need to keep the hunger and thirst for God alive in our hearts: --Every human being is blessed at creation with an insatiable longing for God.

--We want God as our Father to hold us gently in His arms, keeping us safe throughout the dangers we face. But often we use substitutes as an escape from that need: fast living, fast food, fast cars, needless luxuries, -- We demand the right to do whatever we want to do whenever we want. But let us remember the truth that unless we keep the hunger for God strong in our hearts, we will eventually realize the emptiness of our lives without Him.

“MY FLESH IS TRUE FOOD, AND MY BLOOD IS TRUE DRINK.”

Jesus said to the crowd: “I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.” The Jews quarreled among themselves, saying, “how can this man give us his flesh to eat?” Jesus said to them, “Amen, Amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink.

BABY'S LIFE BEFORE BIRTH

- ♥ My heart is beating at 18 to 25 days.
- ♥ The foundation for my nervous system is in place at 20 days.
- ♥ My skeleton is complete at 42 days and I have reflexes.
- ♥ My brain waves can be detected as early as 43 days.
- ♥ At 8 weeks my brain and all body systems are present and I look like a miniature doll.

- ♥ During weeks 9 and 10 I squint, swallow and can make a fist.
- ♥ By the 11th and 12th weeks I am moving my arms and legs, sucking my thumb and breathing amniotic fluid. All my systems are working.
- ♥ My movements by 16 weeks are quite active and I can be seen performing somersaults on ultrasound but am not yet felt by my mother.
- ♥ From the 3rd month on nothing new develops. I continue to grow in size and by 20 weeks I have hair on my head, weigh 1 pound and am 12 inches tall.
