Deacon's Corner

"But who do you say that I am?" (See Saint Matthew 16:13-20) These words addressed to the original disciples by Jesus himself are also addressed to each one of us. There is no alternative. Jesus asks all of us, "who do you say that I am?" It is not a matter of answering with words, although at times that may be necessary. It is a matter of answering with our own very lives. Yes, by the way we live people ought to be able to say: "Jesus is his Lord," or "Jesus is her Lord." St. Peter gave the perfect answer, given to him by God himself. Because of that, he was entrusted with the keys of the kingdom and even up to our day, as far as we Catholics are concerned, where Peter is, there is also the Church. We need to remember that God gave this perfect answer to St. Peter. As Jesus says, "flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father." So, it is with us. If we want to answer Jesus' question, we need the help of the Holy Spirit. We need to entrust our lives to the intercession of Mary. God entrusted to Mary the life of his Son. We will do well in entrusting to her our response to this vital question, "who do you say that I am?"

Deacon Cris

El Rincón del Diácono

«¿Y ustedes, quién dicen que soy yo?» (Véase San Mateo 16, 13-20). Estas palabras, dirigidas por el mismo Jesús a los primeros discípulos, se dirigen también a cada uno de nosotros. No hay alternativa. Jesús nos pregunta a todos: «¿Quién dicen que soy yo?». No se trata de responder con palabras, aunque a veces eso pueda ser necesario; se trata de responder con nuestra propia vida. Sí, por nuestra forma de vivir, los demás deberían poder decir: «Jesús es su Señor». San Pedro dio la respuesta perfecta, una respuesta que le fue dada por Dios mismo. Por ello, se le confiaron las llaves del Reino y, hasta el día de hoy —al menos para nosotros, los católicos—, donde está Pedro, allí está también la Iglesia. Debemos recordar que fue Dios quien dio esta respuesta perfecta a San Pedro. Como dice Jesús: «No te lo ha revelado ningún hombre, sino mi Padre que está en los cielos». Lo mismo sucede con nosotros: si queremos responder a la pregunta de Jesús, necesitamos la ayuda del Espíritu Santo. Necesitamos encomendar nuestra vida a la intercesión de María. Dios confió a María la vida de su Hijo; haremos bien en encomendarle también nuestra respuesta a esta pregunta vital: «¿Quién dicen que soy yo?».

Homily Twenty First Sunday OT A 2026

I. - Today's Gospel is one of several foundational texts for: MAGISTERIUM---the teaching authority of the church, PAPACY, AND PAPAL INFALIBILITY.

The Magisterium consists of all the Bishops of the world in accord with the Holy Father (there is no higher authority).

Today's Gospel reading shows us how the PRIMACY OF PETER developed over time AND THAT IT WAS CHRIST'S INTENTION TO ESTABLISH THE PAPACY.

II Today's Gospel is about expectations. It's important to have HIGH EXPECTATIONS of oneself, of others (family, spouse, children,)

It is certainly important to have the HIGEST EXPECATIONS OF OUR GOD.

GOSPEL: Jesus has been at his public ministry for about a year, and he wants to know if people are getting it. He wants to know what people are saying about him. Do people believe that He is the Messiah who is to come. At this point he has been banned from the Synagogues to preach; the poor are more interested in his miracles than his teaching.

He wants to know if people are getting it, he wants to know the buzz, the gossip,…..so he asked his disciples:

a) WHO DO PEOPLE SAY THAT I AM?

Their answers express a number of different expectations of the coming Messiah:

--John the Baptist was so great a figure, even though he was beheaded many believed he would come back to life.

--- Elijah, the greatest of the prophets, was believed to be the forerunner of the Messiah. Elijah went up to heaven in a chariot of fire and many believed he would return the same way.

--- one of the prophets" They were paying him a great compliment and setting him in a high place, for Jeremiah and Elijah were the expected forerunners of the Anointed One of God. Many hoped for a prophet / king who would restore Israel to its former Glory like under king David. There was an economic motive here.

It has to be said that since the time of Abraham and later Moses the prophets prophesied about a coming deliverer or Messiah which took on different expectations.

B) Now our Lord wants to make it personal, and he looks squarely at his Apostles and asks: WHO DO YOU SAY THAT I AM? He is asking his Apostles if they are even getting it, do they believe he is the Messiah.

Peter, speaking for the other disciples, declared publicly: "You are the Christ (Messiah), the Son of the living God."

Peter was the first apostle to recognize Jesus publicly as the Anointed One (also translated Messiah or Christ. Christ is the Greek word for the Hebrew word Messiah). Peter was saying that Jesus is the Christ, the anointed one of God, Emmanuel {GOD IS WITH US}

It is evident that Jesus was well pleased with Peter's answer. Jesus first pronounced a blessing upon Peter, the only disciple in the Gospels to receive a personal blessing. "Blessed are you, Simon son of John!" Next, Jesus confirmed Peter's insight as a special revelation from God. "No mere man has revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father."

Jesus was quick to explain to the disciples that he was not a political messiah. Instead, He was a messiah who must suffer, die, and be raised to life again. The apostles did not want to hear this.

III This raises the issue for us: do we have high expectations of our God? It is only when we have high expectations of our God, we allow God to be God in our lives.

--Its only when we believe that all things are possible with our God, we allow him to be God and Savior of our lives. If we don't believe that all things are possible with God, how can he be Lord in our lives? People who have spent a lifetime of calling out to our God, already know that he will respond.

IV The first reading from Isaiah gives a detailed description of the investiture of a royal court official. The robe, the sash, and the keys are insignia of this office. Isaiah tells of how the keys of authority were taken away from the Shebna, the unfaithful and proud "master of the royal palace" and given to the humble and faithful Eliakim.

In the second reading, St. Paul points out that God is the source of all authority on earth and in heaven.

V Fr Joseph Wimmer, OSA who taught scripture especially the Pentateuch said that when Moses asked God (speaking from the burning bush) his name and God responded:

YAHWEH: I am who I am…. some scholars say that it is really expressed in the future: I will be for you who I will be for you. That the name means: I am you God, I am the fulfillment of your hopes...

…If you are blind and living in darkness……. I will be your light…

…If you are lost and gone astray……I will be your guide.

…If you are in pain and agony……I will be your healing.

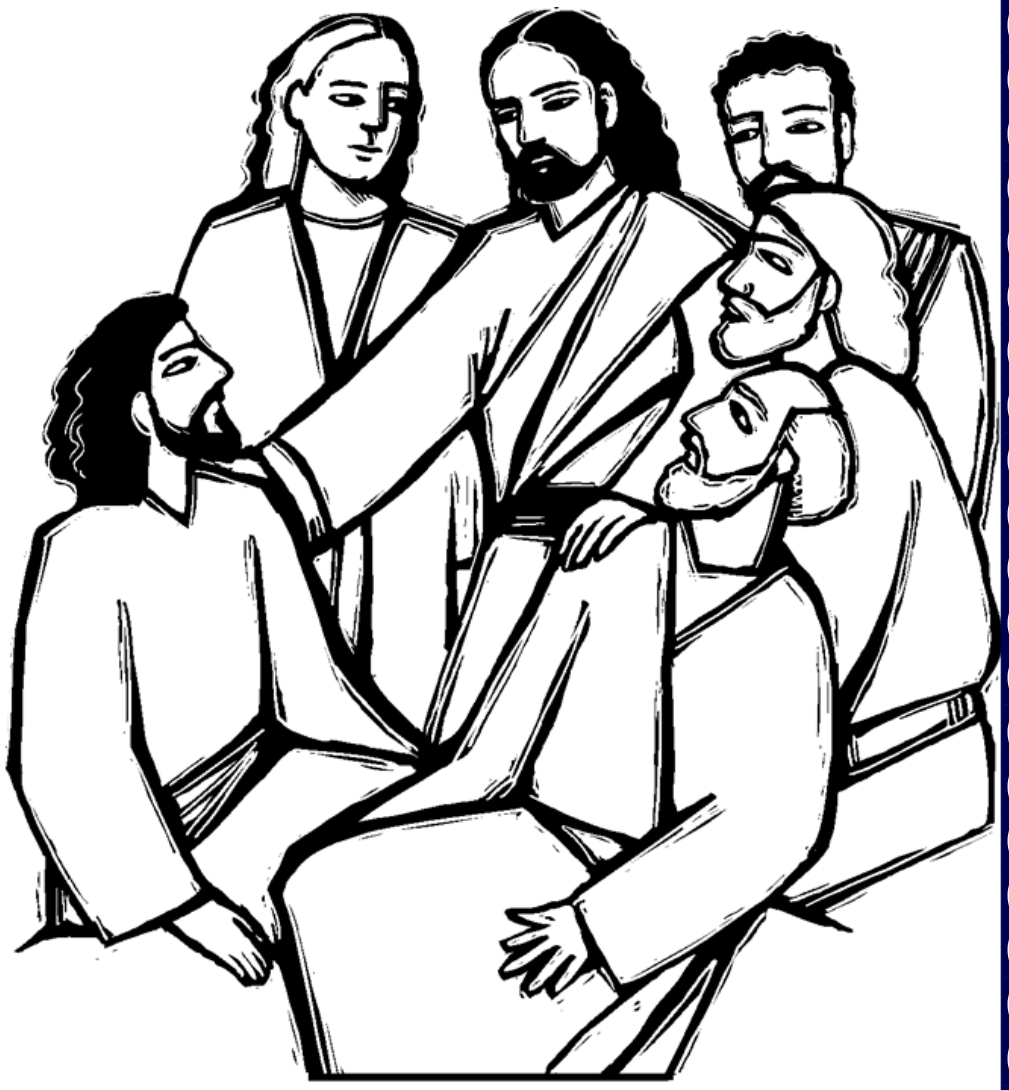
...If you are lost and afraid……I will be your courage….

...If a loved one is in the hospital and dying…..I will be you hope…

...If you are living in poverty and without the basic necessities in life…I will be your helping hand.

…I will be for you, who I will be for you…I am the Christ the Son of the living God.

THE SON OF THE LIVING GOD



When Jesus went into the region of Caesarea Philippi He asked His disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?" They replied, "Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." He said to them, "But Who do you say that I am?" Simon Peter said in reply, "You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God."

Saint Matthew XVI:13-16

Ministry of Consolation: Offering God's Comfort in Times of Sorrow

Life is so full of pain, sadness and loneliness that we often wonder what we can do to alleviate the immense suffering we see.
We can and must offer consolation.
To console does not mean to take away the pain,
but rather to be there and say,
"You are not alone, I am with you."
We all need to give consolation as well as to receive it.
- Henri Nouwen

The Ministry of Consolation serves as a "go-between" for the Parish and the bereaved family. Are you looking for a meaningful way to serve your parish, our consolation Ministry here at Our Holy Redeemer is seeking people who feel called to serve those who are grieving the loss of a loved one.

The support and comfort that we provide are always appreciated. It is truly a wonderful and fulfilling ministry. Come and join us for an uplifting and a "feeling good inside" experience! Couples are encouraged to participate!!!

If you want to be part of this rewarding ministry, contact Deacon Bruce Burnham Tel. # 516-943-8306

Every Christian is called to serve others within the body of Christ. This calling is not just for a select few but for each one of us, as members of the church. This service is rooted in love, humility, and the acknowledgment of the gifts given to us by the Holy Spirit.

BABY'S LIFE BEFORE BIRTH
- My heart is beating at 18 to 25 days.
- The foundation for my nervous system is in place at 20 days.
- My skeleton is complete at 42 days and I have reflexes.
- My brain waves can be detected as early as 43 days.
- At 8 weeks my brain and all body systems are present and I look like a miniature doll.
- During weeks 9 and 10 I squint, swallow and can make a fist.
- By the 11th and 12th weeks I am moving my arms and legs, sucking my thumb and breathing amniotic fluid. All my systems are working.
- My movements by 16 weeks are quite active and I can be seen performing somersaults on ultrasound but am not yet felt by my mother.
- From the 3rd month on nothing new develops. I continue to grow in size and by 20 weeks I have hair on my head, weigh 1 pound and am 12 inches tall.
