FAITH AND EDUCATION

SCHOOOL'S IN: DRIVE CAREFULLY (BOTH ON AND OFF THE ROAD)

The De La Salle School is about more than education. It is about changing futures, those of the young men we serve, the families they will one day lead, and the communities they will impact. Through faith, education, and the generosity of our supporters, we are helping shape young men who will become caring citizens and leaders of tomorrow.

As Jeremiah 29:11 reminds us, "For I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, plans for your welfare and not for woe, so as to give you a future of hope." This promise reflects our belief in the potential and future of every young man entrusted to our care.

We are able to continue this important mission because of you. Thank you for believing in our young men, investing in their futures, and making this work possible.

We do not give because we owe something to the past; we give because we believe in someone else's future. Thank you for believing in their future

Please join us at our upcoming events:

- Silver Jubilee Christmas Luncheon– Wednesday, December 10, featuring guest speaker Archbishop Timothy Dolan
- 25th Silver Jubilee Gala –Thursday, May 6, 2027

DEACON'S CORNER

"Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy." (See Saint Matthew 25:14-30) There are those who believe that Christians have no need to use their talents wisely in the Kingdom of God. They say, "all you need is faith."—that this is not so is noticeably clear from all of today's readings. The Book of Proverbs praises the good wife because of "her labors," and equates these labors with fearing the Lord. The Psalmist says that the man who fears the Lord will eat the fruit of his handiwork and will be blessed by the Lord. In this same vein, Saint Paul encourages the Thessalonians, some of whom had stopped working believing the Second Coming was imminent, to "stay alert and sober." Finally, Jesus let us know that those who are faithful in discharging their Kingdom responsibility will share in the joys of the Kingdom of God. We have all received talents. We must all use them. Even those who are confined to a hospital bed can pray. Let no one among us belittle the value of prayer. It may be the most important thing we do. In this respect, the Saints never fail us. They were following the example of Jesus who prayed constantly throughout his entire human life. It is of interest that our petition to Mary, the Holy Mother of God, is "pray for us." We are asking the Blessed Mother to pray for us. Should we not pray for ourselves and for others. Use all the talents God has given you, and if you think He has not given you any, then by all means, do not forget to pray.

Deacon Cris

EL RINCÓN DEL DIÁCONO

"Te felicito, siervo bueno y fiel. Puesto que has sido fiel en cosas de apoco valor te confiaré cosas de mucho valor. Entra a tomar parte en la alegría de tu señor." (Ver San Mateo 25,14-30) Hay algunos que creen que los cristianos no necesitan usar sus talentos con prudencia en el Reino de Dios. Dicen que todo lo que uno necesita es fe. Que eso no es cierto se puede ver fácilmente de las lecturas de hoy. El libro de Proverbios alaba a la esposa buena debido a ser una "mujer hacendosa", e iguala esas labores a temer al Señor. Del mismo modo San Pablo insta a los Tesalonicenses, algunos de los cuales habían cesado de trabajar por creer que la Segunda Venida era inminente, a mantenerse despiertos y vivir sobriamente. Finalmente Jesús nos deja saber que los que son fieles desempeñando sus responsabilidades participarán en los gozos del Reino de Dios. Todos hemos recibido talentos. Todos debemos de usarlos. Hasta los que están confinados en una cama de hospital pueden orar. Que nadie entre nosotros menosprecie el valor de la oración. Quizás sea la cosa más importante que hacemos. A este respecto los Santos nos ponen el mejor ejemplo. Ellos seguían el ejemplo de Jesús quien oró constantemente a través de toda su vida humana. Es interesante que nuestra petición a María, la Santísima Madre de Dios es "ora por nosotros." Ya que le pedimos a la Santísima virgen que ore por nosotros, no deberíamos nosotros orar por otros y por nosotros mismos. Use todos los talentos que Dios le ha dado, y si le parece que Dios no le ha dado ninguno, entonces, de ningún modo cese de orar.

Diácono Cris

Pastor's Message

Thirty Third Sunday OT "A" Parable of the Talents 2026

I.—It's amazing how some people have been given rare and extraordinary human abilities. Like absolute or perfect pitch. These talented individuals can sing a particular musical note at will. Some people have been given the gift of a photographic memory and can memorize pages and pages of material. Some people can multiply several digit numbers in their mind. These gifts are very rare. Whether one has super-abilities or just ordinary abilities: we all have something… we are all called to build God's Kingdom. EVERY HUMAN BEING IS A UNIQUE MASTEWORK OF GOD WITH A UNIQUE ABILTIES AND GIFTS./

When someone gives you a gift, the best way to show your gratitude is to thoroughly use the gift. For example, someone gives you a sweater, then you wear the sweater.

Today's Gospel message is that we've all been entrusted with something, something we need to utilize, invest, and multiply. I would suggest that we all, at a minimum, have been given at least three gifts / talents (among others): We have been given the gifts of: time, faith, the ability to forgive.

TIME: We are the sum of our time. How well do we use our time and for what purpose? When your child asks you to have a catch or play soccer or help them with their homework or read to them, do you take the time? When your spouse asks you to go for a walk or to the park, do you take the time? When your brother or sister asks you to sit with them and have a serious conversation, do you take the time? When the Holy Spirit prompts you to take the time and pray to the Lord, do you take the time? Time is our greatest and most valuable gift that we are called to share. As long as we are alive we have time to invest. Sometimes we have a lot of it sometimes very little.

FAITH: is our greatest gift our Pearl of Great Price. We have to ask for faith. We can't say tomorrow I will have greater faith. When we are given faith we have to practice it. It is not ours; it belongs to God. Faith tells us that God is: all loving, all forgiving, and is near to us, that no matter what happens in life he will always be near to us and help us. Do we share this FACT with others who need to hear it? Do we proclaim this to the world? Our faith is not meant to be put under a basket or hidden under a bed. We should well up with joy knowing in faith that God is all loving, all forgiving, and near to us. Do we live this way with courage?

FORGIVENESS: the greatest power we will ever have to the ABILITY TO FORGIVE OTHERS. Scholars say that our Lord's greatest act (not so much a miracle) is that he forgave his persecutors from the cross. Forgiveness is power! If you have ever withheld forgiveness from someone (e.g spouse, family member, child, etc.) You know what power and control you can have. We forgive to not let hurt, pain, or offense control our lives. We forgive, not to let a person "off the hook" we forgive to allow healing and peace into our hearts. We forgive to say to another person I am not going to allow your offense to rule my heart. To be able to say to a loved one, spouse, family member, etc. . . ."I forgive you! Probably the most powerful words ever spoken.

When we stand before our Lord will we be able to show him how well we use and invested in the gifts he gave us.

Last week's parable (allegory) of the 5 foolish and 5 wise Virgins was about being smart, spiritually intelligent, being prepared for the second coming of Christ. Today's readings are about how we should be spending our time and what we should be doing. In Paul's letter to the Thessalonians he reminds us that the Day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night, when we least expect it, when we are at least ready. So we have to stay awake and sober to anticipate the Lord's coming.

The Gospel Parable today further defines what we should be doing as we wait for the Lord's coming. The parable urges responsible use of what God has entrusted to us so we may be ready. A "talent" was worth between five to six thousand denarii or about 15 years wages for a day laborer (a huge sum). The employer = God who entrusts his property to three servants while he goes away. That they are not given the same amount implies that they have different abilities.

It is interesting to note that the Greek word for "gained" or "made" was used in a religious context for winning converts. Not making profit in terms of capital or money but rather converts for the Kingdom of God. The man with one talent kept it purely for himself, not risking so others could benefit from it. He probably knew the long-standing rabbinic teaching that anyone who buries money in his care is no longer liable for its safety. Jesus teaches there is no "safe" position in life. Being Catholic involves taking a risk, going beyond ones comfort zone to share one's faith. We are expected to use what we have been given for: personal growth, community service, and religious witness. God only asks that we make full use of what he has given us.

Story: Antonio Stradivari was born in Cremona, Italy, in 1644. Because Antonio's voice was high and squeaky, he did not pass the audition for the Cremona Boys' Choir. When he took violin lessons, the neighbors persuaded his parents to make him stop. Yet Antonio still wanted to make music. His friends made fun of him because his only talent was wood-carving. When Antonio was 22 he became an apprentice to a well-known violin maker, Nicholas Amati. Under his master's training Antonio's knack for carving grew, and his hobby became his craft. He started his own violin shop when he was 36. He worked patiently and faithfully. By the time he died at 93, he had built over 1,500 violins, each one bearing a label that read, "Antonius Stradivarius Cremonensis Faciebat Anno…" ("Antonio Stradivari of Cremona made in the year...") They are the most sought-after violins in the world and sell for more than $100,000 each. Antonio couldn't sing or play or teach but he used the ability he had, and his violins are still making beautiful music today. Antonio is a challenge to people who have only a single talent and who try to bury the talent for fear of failure -- like the lazy servant in Jesus' parable.

Are You Faithful in Small Matters?

Jesus told His disciples this parable: "A man going on a journey called in his servants and entrusted his possessions to them. To one he gave five talents; to another, two; to a third, one-to each according to his ability. Then he went away. "After a long time the master of those servants came back and settled accounts with them. The one who had received five talents came forward bringing the additional five. He said, 'Master, you gave me five talents. See, I have made five more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.'"

Saint Matthew 25: 14-15, 19-21

The Freeport Conference of Saint Vincent de Paul

The St. Vincent de Paul Society is a Catholic lay organization that directly helps our neighbors in need. It is a person-to-person ministry of encounter that tries to see the face of Christ in the faces of those who are suffering financial hardship. It is a Gospel response to assist our brothers and sisters through the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy.

¡Urgente Llamado a los Monaguillos!

¿Te gustaría ayudar a servir en el altar? ¿Por qué no unirte al creciente grupo de jóvenes que ayudan al Sacerdote en nuestro Altar? Si estás interesado, y tus padres están de acuerdo, llama al Padre Rubén al 516-378-0665. Si él no está disponible, déjale un recado con tu nombre y teléfono y él o un delegado te llamará. El primer paso es recibir instrucción para que sepas lo que tienes que hacer y las primeras veces que sirves te acompañará otro servidor con experiencia que te ayudará a hacer lo que debes hacer. De modo, que ¡manos a la obra!
